Implementation of renewable energy and energy efficiency policies in the Czech Republic
Implementation of renewable energy and energy efficiency policies in the Czech Republic

Pavel Gebauer
Energy department
Ministry of Industry and Trade

Strategy documents

- Directive on the energy performance of buildings
- Directive on energy end-use efficiency and energy services
- Directive establishing a framework for the setting of ecodesign requirements related to products energy

- Energy Management Act
- National Action plan for Renewables Energy Sources

- Directive on the promotion of renewable energy
- Directive on the promotion of combined heat and power (CHP)

- Supported energy sources Act
- Energy Act
Renewable energy sources

Investment support for energy from RES:

Operational Programmes of the EU funds
- OPPI - Business and Innovation (2007-2013)
- OPŽP - Environment
- PRV - Rural Development Programme

Programs funded from other sources
- The EFEKT
- SFŽP - Green Savings

Operational support from RES:

The beginnings of support already in 2000 (Energy Act)
A separate law on the promotion of electricity from RES in 2005
Since 2013 new law on supported by sources of energy will be introduced. Law include support for:
- Electricity
- Heat
- Biomethane
Energy efficiency I.

The legislative framework for EE:

- The Energy Management Act
  - Efficiency in energy production
  - Efficiency of products related to energy consumption
  - Energy audits
  - The energy performance of buildings
  - Inspections of boilers and air conditioning

- The Energy Act
- The supported energy sources Act
  - CHP
  - Support of Distributed Generation
  - The minimum requirements for energy production
Energy efficiency II.

Investment support for EE:

Operational Programmes of the EU funds

- OPPI – Eko-energy programme
- OPŽP – Environment

State programs from the state budget and other sources

- State Housing Development Programme - Program Panel
- EFEKT – State programme on supporting RES and EE
- SFŽP - Green Savings
Thank you for your attention