

EUFORES Parliamentary Workshop

“20% Renewable Energy in 2020 - How do we get there? Scenarios and ways of implementation”

EUSEW 2009 – European Union Sustainable Energy Week
Monday, 9th February 2009, 15:00 – 17:30

European Parliament, Brussels (room change!!!!: PHS 7C 050)

Strictly upon invitation only!

Short description

High level parliamentary panel discussion on the Renewable Energy Directive, national RES action plans, scenarios for 2020 and ways to implement those policies and to reach the goals.

Agenda

- “A sustainable energy policy for Europe: The importance of the Renewable Energy Directive” – Mechtild Rothe, President EUFORES, Vice-President European Parliament
- “The Renewable Energy Directive – Core elements”, Christopher Jones, Director, DG TREN, European Commission
- “Linking Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency: The Renewable Energy Directive and the Energy Performance of Buildings Directive”, Fiona Hall, MEP, Vice-President EUFORES
- “From legislation to implementation: The role of the national Renewable Energy Action Plans (RAPs)”, Claude Turmes, MEP, Vice-President EUFORES
- “Renewable Energy Technology Roadmap 20% by 2020”, Arthouros Zervos, President EREC
- “How to reach the renewable energy targets in EU 27 – results from the IEE project RES 2020”, George Giannakidis, Center for Renewable Energy Sources
- Open discussion

Target group

Members European Parliament, Members EU27 national Parliaments, representatives other EU Institutions, renewable Energy industry experts, other related stakeholders

Supported by

Disclaimer: The sole responsibility for the content of this publication lies with the authors. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of the European Communities. The European Commission is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information contained therein.

In cooperation with

In cooperation with

Sponsored by

